IDEM sent me the attached letters concerning Tradebe's thermal desorption unit.

It looks the unit is exempted from permitting due to recycling nature.

Hi Jae,

Attached is a letter sent back in 2006. I believe it may be related to your issue, and it was sent to the Environmental Technology Council. Also attached is an older letter sent to PCI (now known as Tradebe) regarding a thermal desorbition unit.

I'll let you know if I find anything else.

Ruth
